Retiring Faculty

THEN

NOW

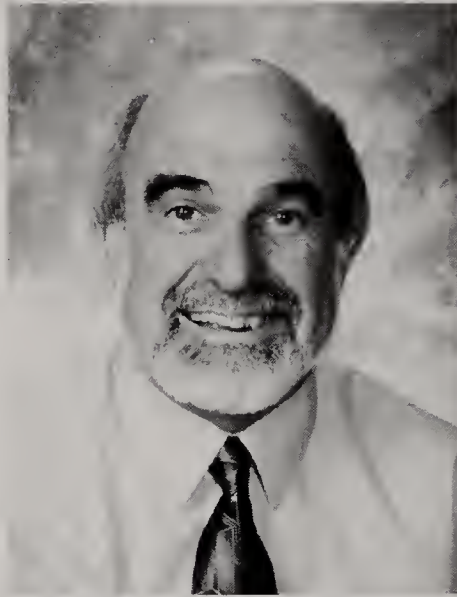

Mr. Arthur W. Plante, chairman of the English department, began his teaching career in September of 1973, when he was hired as a seventh and eighth grade teacher of English. For two years (1979 - 1981), he taught grade seven English at Assumption School. At Bellingham Memorial Jr. Sr. High School, commencing in September of 1982 to June of 2001 and at Bellingham High School from August 2001 to June 2008, Mr. Plante has exclusively taught high school English courses that ranged in leveling from basic and standard to honors and Advanced Placement English Language and Composition.

His philosophy of education, based upon educational aspirations for student achievement, is attained by raising students' expectations to produce quality work by perseverance, by internal drive, and by pride of workmanship. Mr. Plante has always purported that the epitome of learning is reflected by one's ability to express oneself by well-written and well-organized discourse. He feels that writing, reading, researching, and critical thinking skills are necessary elements for success not only for high school, but also for college and for life-long learning.

Bellingham finished 9-2 giving Coach Rigney his best season since becoming head football coach. The season was led by the foundation of hard-working and dedicated seniors. Senior leadership carried the team to a 9-2 record. Despite falling short of a TVL title, everybody left everything on the field, with no regrets. A highlight point of the season was the victory over Holliston. The Panthers came rolling into Bellingham with a perfect record, and ranked in the top 20 on the Boston Globe's ranking system. While coming into Bellingham with confidence, they left defeated as Bellingham upset Holliston 13-8. Also, the Blackhawks kept a perfect record on Thanksgiving making it 6-0 against the Norton Lancers. As the seniors graduate, the Blackhawk pride will remain with every senior for the rest of their lives.

This years season was one of the best seasons the volleyball team has ever had; both on and off the court. When it came to games we struggled to get the 4 wins that we got, but never the less we always stayed together. The season will never be forgotten because of all the support we got from our friends and of course our mascot!

Field Hockey

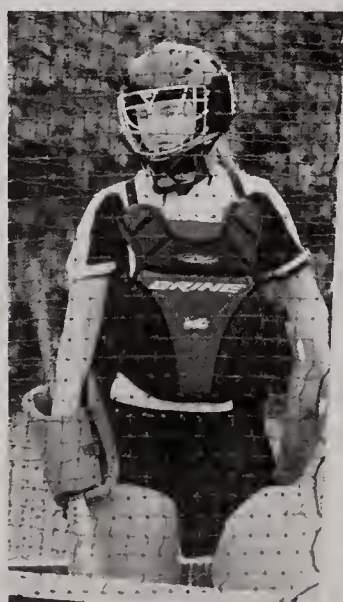

The 2007 Varsity Field Hockey team was very dedicated this year, and very hard working. They are saying goodbye to eight seniors, Including: Katie Ranieri, Laura Houde, Elizabeth Delorme, Sabrina Tordoff, Molly Carbon, Haleigh Daggett, Meghan Burke and Julie Tomolonis.

On a cold afternoon, the hawks were looking for a victory once again to qualify for tourney. Four minutes into the game, BHS took the lead. With a winning record of 9-7-3 the hawks has a great offensive season outscoring 38-27. The underclassmen would like to with the eight seniors the best of luck in their next chapter of life. Thank you for all the memories.

Class History

Freshmen year we began a new chapter of our lives, high school. We did not really know what to expect, for after all it was a time of both excitement and change. At the class assembly, Mrs. Recore told us the next four years would fly by. At the time I didn't know that she would be right. Leading our class that very first year was President Allison Eddy, Vice President Mike Silva, Secretary Amanda Eddy and Treasurer Kayla Salvas. We quickly learned that spirit week was none other than one week of absolute chaos in the middle of October, ending with Homecoming on Friday. Freshmen year our posters followed the theme of Bananas in Pajamas. Our first Homecoming dance was held in October of 2004. One of the most memorable moments of the evening, was when the seniors started a mosh pit with homecoming king Mike Burke at the top. The excitement of the year continued to build, as the Red Sox won the World Series for the first time in 86 years and the Patriots won their third Superbowl in four years! That spring the band went to Atlanta, Georgia where they received a silver medal at the band festival. The year concluded with a class trip to Six Flags.

Sophomore year, moving up in the ranks, we were branded with the color orange for the year. Chris Wilcox took the ropes as President, with Nicole Alarie as Vice President, Maggie Carroll and Becky Pearcey as Secretaries, and returning treasurer Kayla Salvas. Our Disney themed posters for spirit week were the best in our eyes. The Bellingham Blackhawks were making a name for themselves in the athletic world that year. Our Varsity Field Hockey team, as well as the Varsity Basketball and Varsity Baseball teams were all named TVL champs! The first ever Girls Lacrosse team also began that very same year. When reminiscing about sophomore year, for many that means the haunting memory of Mr. Emma, the pottery making biology teacher. He tried to ruin our minds, but Mr. Henderson and Mr. Holcomb helped us survive. After suffering through MCAS, we were able to relax and have some fun at the Ring Dance. On April 1st, 2006, we all gathered at Savini's in Woonsocket, for our Ring Dance, A Night to Remember. The court was announced and Princes- Marcus Alfred, Chris Cuomo, Christopher Wilcox, and Shawn Kaiser stepped forward. Joining them were Princesses- Shanna DiRusso, Stacy Allen, Erin Cotter and Cara Huntley. Finally the King and Queen were announced, Richie Barche and Allison Eddy. As sophomore year came to a close we looked forward to next year, when we would finally be upper classmen.

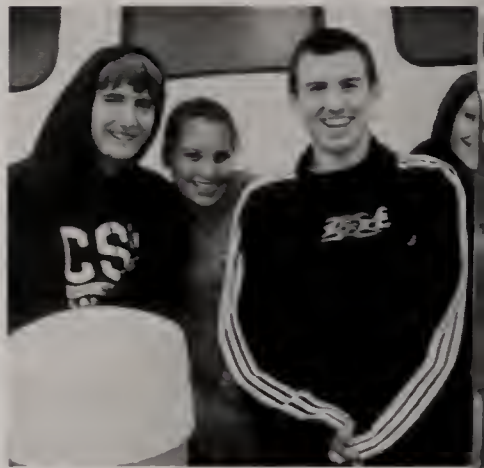

Junior year, we were half way there, earning a new title and position, as upper classmen. We enjoyed the new privileges, such as student parking, and coming in late and leaving early for study. Once again our class officers changed, this time Stacy Knight was President, along with Vice President Jenn Korona, Secretary Kayla Salvas, and Treasurer Meghan Burke. Spirit Week that year was far better than before. Our Elmo themed posters didn't win, but we dominated penny wars and spirit links. At the end of the week the points were tallied and it was official the juniors had beat the seniors! Later that year some juniors got a jump start on senior pranks and with the help of the custodians, snuck into the school late one night and gift wrapped Mr. Badalament's office. Once again the Varsity Boys' Baseball team held the title of TVL champs. June 1st rolled around and it was Prom night. The Prom was held at Christina's in Foxboro. Although it went by faster than we would have liked, it was a night we would remember for the rest of our lives. Our Junior Prom Court consisted of Princesses-Courtney O'Leary, Cara Huntley and Pam Swanson along with Princes- Richie Barche, Chris Cuomo and David West. Our 2007 Junior Prom King and Queen were Nick Urmston and Haleigh Daggett. The band also took a trip to New York City at the end of the year. As the final bell rang on the last day of our Junior year, we piled out into the parking lot knowing that our Senior year was ahead of us.

Senior year we arrived back at school with a new sense of pride, for we were now the senior class at Bellingham High School. Leading the class were the newly elected officers, President Chris Wilcox, Vice President Jenn Korona, Secretary Bridget Boles and Treasurer Nicole Bileau. During Spirit Week, we chose blue character to be our theme. Sadly we were beat out by the sophomores who chose Harry Potter as their theme. However, we once again dominated penny wars and spirit links. Our links lapped the other classes, when they were hung along the walls of the gym during the pep rally. As a class, we changed a lot over the years, for we went from having a single green balloon at our freshmen pep rally, to having the best decorated section our senior year. Our senior year marked the beginning of a new tradition at Bellingham High School, the Powder Puff game. It was an intense night, but the seniors ended up beating the juniors in a close but exhilarating game. At the homecoming game, the football team defeated Hopkinton. Although the Homecoming Dance did not run smoothly at first and technical difficulties caused a lot of tension in the beginning, it eventually turned out to be like no other. Our Homecoming Princes were David West, Richie Barche, Shawn Baker, and Norman Landry. Our Princesses were, Nichole Robbie, Pamela Swanson, Bridget Boles, and Allison Eddy. Mike Lamothe and Haleigh Daggett were our 2007 Homecoming King and Queen. As the year progressed, the Mock Trial team with the guidance of Mr. Suffoletto, went 3-0 in the Preliminary round and unfortunately lost a close match in the playoff round, yet it was the farthest the team had gone in a while. Over April Vacation, many seniors went to Florida to take part in Walt Disney World's Grad Night 2008! Some of the other seniors spent ten days in Spain on a trip led by Mrs. Seery and Mrs. McDonald. All four years the Concert Band received a Silver Medal at the MICCA Band Festival. That spring of our senior year, the Varsity Softball team became the best team Bellingham High had seen in a long time going 17-3 in their regular season and making it to the second round of the tournament. Our Prom, themed "A Night on the Town" was held at Lucianos on Lake Pearl. For once we had some nice sunny weather. Before long the 2008 Prom court had been picked and Kayla Salvas, Andrea Rempelakis and Erin Pelletier were Princesses. Norman Landry, Rob Provost, and Ryan Murphy were the princes. Our 2008 Prom King and Queen were David West and Kate Quinn.

Although quite hard to believe, our high school days have come to an end. Never again will our Friday mornings be comprised of Hawk News or will we freeze to death, while screaming our lungs out at a BHS football game. Never again will we storm the court at a basketball game. Never again will we see Mr. Holmes race to lunch or hear Eddie Henderson do an impersonation of Mr. Costa. We have all changed since that very first class assembly. We have grown up and experienced a great deal together, but now it is time to end this chapter of our lives and begin a new one come September. So, to the Class of 2008, I wish you all the best of luck and I hope that no matter where life takes you, you will always hold the memories of Bellingham High School close to your heart.

Believe In Yourself

*Set your standards high
You deserve the best.
Try for what you want
And never settle for less.
Believe in yourself
No matter what you choose.
Keep a winning attitude
And you can never lose.
Think about your destination
But don't worry if you stray
Because the most important thing
Is what you've learned along the way.
Take all that you've become
To be all that you can be.
Soar above the clouds
And let your dreams set you free.*

Valedictorian

Good evening ladies and gentlemen; family and friends; faculty, staff and town administrators. We are gathered here tonight to celebrate the accomplishments of the Bellingham High School Class of 2008.

To the faculty - thank you for many memorable years of learning not only basic material, but also life lessons. Your words and wisdom have inspired us all. To the family and friends - thank you so much for the years of love and support that you all have provided us, and to the Class of 2008 - Congratulations! We made it through four long years and tonight we end one chapter and begin another!

Julie Tomolonis

But before we head off in different directions, I would like to take a few minutes to explain the importance of following your dreams. Whether you are going to college, joining the military, entering the work force, or whatever else you plan to do in the future, it is important to follow your dreams. Be sure that you always strive to achieve these dreams and do not be embarrassed to do so. It does not matter what people may say, or what your friends may think of your decisions. It is your life, not theirs; so do not be afraid to pursue what your heart truly desires.

There are many famous people whose goals included going to college. Actors such as Arnold Schwarzenegger and Harrison Ford, and politicians like Barack Obama and Ronald Reagan have all graduated college and gone on to live successful lives. However, many other successful people have achieved their dreams without a post-secondary education. Bill Gates, the richest man in the world, is a college dropout and Albert Einstein, one of the greatest minds of all time, never even graduated high school.

Do not get me wrong. I am not trying to convince those of you going to college to not go. What I am trying to say is: for those of you who are not going to college, do not let the lack of further education get in the way of fulfilling your dreams. There are many people in the world who have achieved their goals without a college education. If you are going to college in the fall, enjoy it, because the years spent there will pass by in the blink of an eye. Aspire to new heights and greater ambitions, but most of all do what makes you happy.

When I was little, I always dreamt of going to college and becoming a scientist. I am thrilled to stand here almost 15 years later, on the verge of taking the next step towards achieving my childhood dream. Although I have annoyed my friends on more than one occasion with my constant obsession for science and math, I have never changed my dreams or goals on behalf of what they thought. I know that they accept me for who I am, and for being passionate about what I want in life. In these past years of working towards this dream I have absolutely no regrets and I cannot wait to continue on in my journey.

Following your dreams in life will make you truly happy. If you do not follow your dreams now, you may look back on life 20 years from now and wonder what life could have been. In order to have no regrets later in life, take the initiative now, and do what you have always dreamed of doing before it is too late.

As the author, Dr. Suess, once said,

"You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes.

You can steer yourself In any direction you choose.

You are on your own. And you know what you know.

You are the one who'll decide where to go."

So, my fellow classmates - go out and impact the world in the best way that you can. Remember that happiness is the greatest measure of success. Do not let others get in the way of you achieving your goals. If you live on your own terms and follow your desires, you will look back with little or no regret.

Thank you all and congratulations to the Bellingham High School Class of 2008!

Salutatorian

Derek Lougee

Good evening. I would like to thank every one in attendance this evening for supporting the Bellingham High School graduating class of 2008.

This evening is one meant to reflect upon what high school has meant to each of us. My first thought was that it was simply the means through which I received an education, but I know that it is something more. For the past four years we have spent roughly six and a half hours a day together for 180 days each year. I'd like to think that we've done more than just attend school together: we've grown together. Oscar Wilder once wrote that "Education is an admirable thing, but it is well to remember from time to time that nothing worth knowing can be taught." I think that many of my fellow graduates will attest to this fact. Without ever being told a thing in school we had to learn to manage our time between having to be at school, extracurricular activities, spending time with friends, and doing homework.

Unfortunately, many of these lessons in time management were learned the hard way. For instance: having to do your homework during lunch because you would rather sleep at night. Staying up until 5 am writing a history paper because you always had something better to do. Or sleeping during class and having Mrs. Forte wake you up with the crash cymbals. These experiences are how we learned our most important lessons during high school, and these are the lessons that we will take with us as we graduate.

As we learned these valuable lessons we came upon an unavoidable consequence: we have all changed. We all entered high school as supposedly innocent freshmen, and we've come to where we are now. As we look back to the past this last evening we can call ourselves high school seniors, we should remember what we've gone through, and we should consider what will come.

Today is a celebration of the past, and this ceremony is a moment of reflection upon how much we have truly changed. This evening we will be receiving our diplomas: it is the culmination of our long years of study and the recognition of our many accomplishments. As a whole, we've accomplished a lot and we've gone through more than any of us would really care to recall, but you have to remember, "the Tassel is worth the Hassle." And now, we are ready to move on.

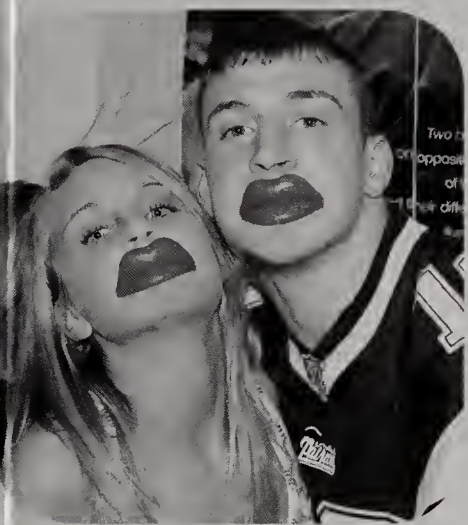

Congratulations to the Class of 2008!

Haleigh Daggett

Your high school journey is now complete. You've succeeded the challenges and made great decisions along the way.

Stay true to yourself, good things will follow.

Love, Mom, Dad, and Devon

Jennifer Gardner

Jenn,
Keep Shining!
We are so proud of you.

Love,
Dad & Mom

Nicole MacDonald

Where has the time gone?
When one door closes another opens. Life is full of surprises.

You are well on your way to "dreams coming true." Reach for the stars and you can grasp the moon. Always remember how proud we are of you and how much we love you.

The MacDonald Family

To all the graduates, CONGRATULATIONS!

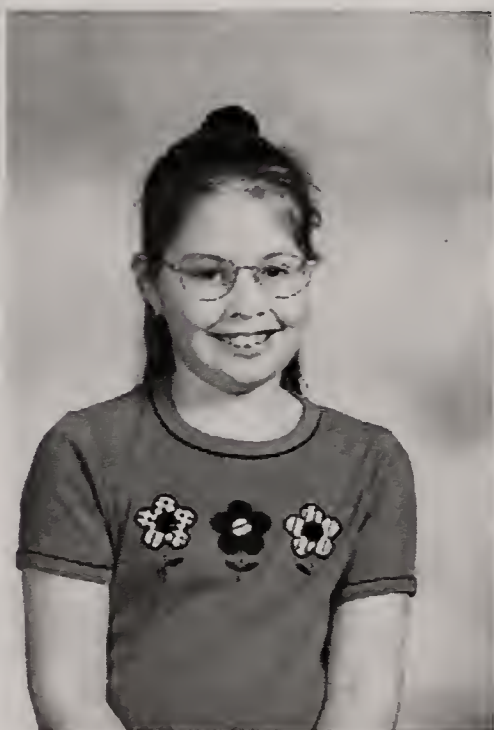

Kayla,

We are so proud of you and all that you have accomplished. Remember, graduation is not an ending, but a beginning. In the years to come, we hope you continue to work hard to make all of your dreams come true no matter where life brings you.

Love,

Mommy, Daddy, Amanda, Stephanie,
Abigail, Olivia, and Isabelle

Michael Vitale

*Michael we are so proud of you!
You have grown from a very active little boy
To a thoughtful, kind, intelligent young man
Whatever dreams you follow remember
You'll never be alone, our prayers and love are always with you*

Love Dad, Mom, Alex and Shay

Congratulations and best wishes Kayla and Michael. We are so proud of you both!

Love,
The Zagames

Nikki,

You have worked so hard these last 4 years and have accomplished so much.

We are very proud of you!

You will accomplish great things in the years to come, just never stop having fun with life.

See and experience Images by Bob DiCaprio.

It's all about the picture. But it's way more than that.

You can tell these seniors are having fun.

(That's because they are.)

Ten years from now, you won't remember your photographer's name. You won't recall how much you paid. You definitely won't know what day of the week you were photographed. But you will still be looking at your photographs, sometimes every day if they are on your wall. Your portraits should be a lasting and positive statement of who you are at this time in your life. They deserve to be enjoyed, not just endured.

That's why Images by Bob DiCaprio works so hard to help you and your parents get photographs of you that you'll love. Not just for now, but for years to come.

WORLD YEARBOOK

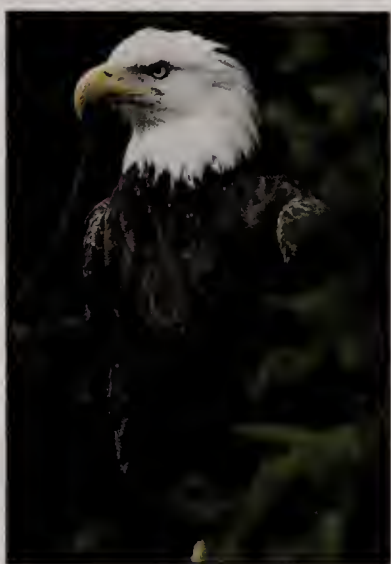

More than 90 million votes were cast when the world was asked to name the "New Seven Wonders of the World." The man-made sites selected include the Coliseum in Rome, Mexico's Chichen Itza, Petra in Jordan, Peru's Machu Picchu, the Taj Mahal in India, Christ the Redeemer Statue in Brazil, and The Great Wall of China.

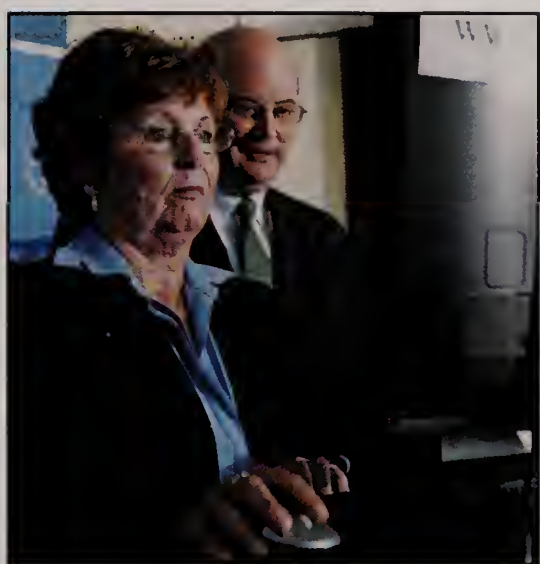

A team of 30 physicians worked 24 hours to remove extra limbs from a two-year old born with eight limbs.

The bald eagle was removed from the endangered species list after 30 years.

The first Baby Boomers became eligible to apply for Social Security benefits, beginning a stress on the system.

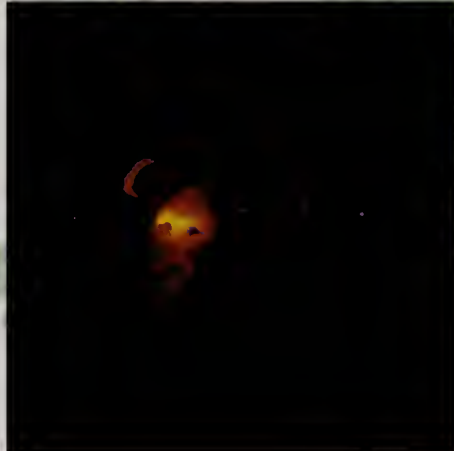

Steve Jobs introduces the MacBook Air, the world's thinnest notebook computer at January's Macworld.

WORLD EVENTS

October wildfires, which forced evacuation of nearly 1 million people, burned more than 600 square miles and destroyed as many as 1,500 homes over 19 days in Southern California. Santa Ana winds and extreme drought worsened the impact of the fires; nine people were killed and 85 others — including at least 61 firefighters — were injured.

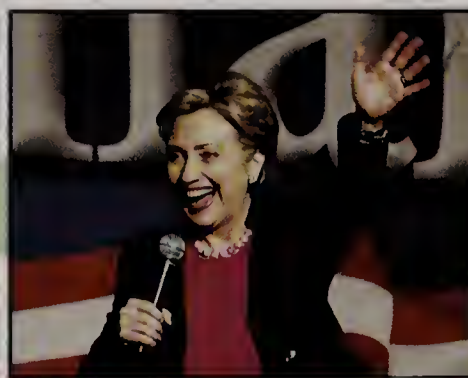

Researchers in South Korea cloned a cat and modified its genes so that it glows red in ultraviolet light.

The space shuttle Endeavor landed safely in August despite exterior damage that had worried NASA.

John McCain emerged from "Super Tuesday" as a strong favorite among Republicans. Mike Huckabee remained his only challenger for the party nomination after Mitt Romney suspended his campaign.

Even after "Super Tuesday" and the Potomac Primaries, the race between Hillary Clinton and Barack Obama for the Democratic presidential nomination was too close to call.

The Billy Graham Library was dedicated in NC in June less than two weeks before the evangelist's wife, Ruth, died.

Cristina Fernandez is Argentina's first elected female president.

Scientists in Moscow unveiled the remains of a frozen mammoth found in the Siberian tundra in May. A reindeer herder found the frozen carcass, which has been dated back 10,000 years to the end of the last Ice Age.

Tesla Motors, a Silicon Valley start-up, pre-sold all 600 of its $98,000 all-electric Roadsters set for production in 2008.

British Prime Minister Tony Blair resigned after 13 years in office.

Researchers uncovered two new species — a giant rat and a tiny possum — in a remote jungle in Indonesia in June.

Former Pakistani Prime Minister Benazir Bhutto was assassinated.

The disputed December re-election of president Mwai Kibaki caused unrest and violence in Kenya.

Unusual cold plagued Iraq. Baghdad's first snow in memory magnified the impact of persistent electrical outages.

Great Britain banned smoking in enclosed public spaces in July. Individuals caught violating the law will be fined $400.

Nintendo's profit doubled this year, thanks to sales of 20 million Wii devices.

Meteorologists blame this winter's tornados across the South on La Niña (the cooling of Pacific waters).

Internet service in Asia, the Middle East and northern Africa was interrupted when an undersea Mediterranean cable failed in January. Many businesses were brought to a standstill, but most Middle East governments had backup satellite systems that minimized the impact.
